I am a resident of the State of Connecticut.

Section 2: Marital Status

I am married to Jian Zeng.

Section 3: Children

I have the following children now living: Caitlin Fan and Natalie Fan. For the purposes of this Will, any reference to my children includes Caitlin Fan and Natalie Fan, as well as any child of mine born or adopted after the execution of this Will.

Section 4: Guardianship of My Children

If a guardian is needed to care for any child of mine or a child's property, I name Julie Zeng to serve as guardian.

If any child of mine is under 21 years of age, the guardian shall serve as custodian for the child's property under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act until such child reaches age 21.

If there are ever two guardians serving jointly, they shall act through unanimous agreement. If there are ever more than two guardians serving jointly, they shall act by majority decision.

No guardian shall be required to post bond.

Section 5: Distribution of Property

My executor shall distribute my estate according to the following bequests:

- a. I leave my entire estate to Jian Zeng.

If Jian Zeng does not survive me, I leave my entire estate to Jian Zeng's descendants.

My entire estate is everything I own at my death that is subject to this Will and that remains after paying all debts, administration expenses, and taxes.

If no beneficiary of specific property or my entire estate can be ascertained from the contents of this will, my executor shall distribute such property to those persons to whom my estate would descend and be distributed under the laws of intestate succession of the State of Connecticut then in force (in the proportions provided therein) had I then died domiciled in the State of Connecticut and such property were located in the State of Connecticut.

Section 6: Executor

I name Jian Zeng to serve as my executor.

If there are ever two executors serving jointly, they shall act through unanimous agreement. If there are ever more than two executors serving jointly, they shall act by majority decision.

As used in this Will, the term “executor” means an executor, personal representative, administrator, or any person who may be duly appointed to administer my estate.

I direct my executor to take all actions legally permissible to have the administration of my estate carried out as simply and as free of court supervision as possible under the laws of the applicable jurisdiction, including filing a petition in the appropriate court for the independent administration of my estate.

I grant my executor the following powers, to be exercised in the best interests of my estate:

- a. To retain real estate and personal property without liability for loss or depreciation.
- b. To sell or otherwise dispose of real estate and personal property by public or private sale, or exchange, or otherwise (whether or not necessary for payment of debts, expenses, or taxes), and receive and administer the proceeds as a part of my estate.
- c. To vote stock; to exercise any option or privilege to convert bonds, notes, stocks or other securities belonging to my estate into other bonds, notes, stocks or other securities; and to exercise all other rights and privileges of a person owning similar property.
- d. To lease any real estate or personal property in my estate.
- e. To abandon, adjust, arbitrate, compromise, sue on or defend and otherwise deal with and settle claims in favor of or against my estate.
- f. To continue or participate in any business which is a part of my estate, and to incorporate, dissolve or otherwise change the form of organization of the business.
- g. To serve as custodian for any real estate or personal property left to minors who are not my children under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act until they reach age 21.

These powers, authority, and discretion are intended to be in addition to the powers, authority, and discretion granted by virtue of serving as an executor under applicable law in any jurisdiction in which any assets passing under this Will are located, and may be exercised as often as necessary or advisable, without application to or approval by any court.

My executor shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for carrying out the duties set forth in this Will.

My executor shall not be required to post a bond.

Section 7: Debts, Expenses, and Taxes

I direct my executors to pay, out of everything I own at my death that is subject to this Will:

- a. any debts owed by my estate (except for liens and encumbrances placed on property as security for the repayment of a loan or debt),

- c. any transfer or estate taxes attributable to assets that are passing under this Will.

Any transfer or estate taxes attributable to assets that are passing under this Will shall be allocated among and borne by the recipients of such assets on a pro rata basis.

Any transfer or estate taxes attributable to assets that are not passing under this Will shall be allocated among and borne by the recipients of such assets on a pro rata basis, and my executor shall have the power to seek, and shall seek, reimbursement for any such taxes from such recipients.

XIANG FAN

Section 1: Declaration

I, Xiang Fan, am a resident of the State of Connecticut. I am of sound mind and declare this as my living will.

As used in this document, the term "living will" shall mean advance health care directive, health care power of attorney, designation of health care proxy or whatever term is used in the statutes of the state where I am present to reference a document where I declare the wishes for my medical care and who shall make health care decisions on my behalf if I become unable to make them on my own.

I revoke all living wills I have previously made.

I further declare that this Living Will is not being made as condition of treatment or admission to a health care facility.

Section 2: Health Care Agent

If at any time I become unable to make my own health care decisions, I name Jian Zeng to serve as my health care agent.

As used in this document, the term "agent" shall mean proxy, surrogate, representative, or whatever term is used in the statutes of the state where I am present to reference the person who shall make health care decisions on my behalf if I become unable to make them on my own.

Agent's Powers

My agent's authority becomes effective when my attending physician and at least one other health care professional determines that I am unable to make my own health care decisions.

I give my agent permission to make all health care decisions for me and to provide, withhold, or withdraw consent to any treatment for any physical or mental condition on my behalf; to apply for public benefits on my behalf to defray the cost of health care; to access my medical records; and to authorize my admission to or transfer from a health care facility in accordance with the instructions in this document, and any other wishes to the extent they are known to my agent.

The above grant of power is intended to be as broad as possible so that my agent will have the authority to make any decision I could make to obtain or terminate any type of health care, including withdrawal of nutrition and hydration and other life-sustaining measures as directed by this Living Will.

If necessary, I nominate my agent to serve as the guardian of my person if one needs to be appointed for me by a court.

Section 3: Instructions for Health Care

If I am diagnosed with a terminal condition, I direct that my health care agent decide the best course of action.

A "terminal condition" means the final stage of an incurable or irreversible medical condition which, without the administration of a life support system, will result in death within a relatively short time period, in the opinion of the attending physician or advanced practice registered nurse.

Section 4: Relief From Pain

Pursuant to state law, I acknowledge that treatment for the alleviation of pain or discomfort shall always be provided.

Section 5: Severability

If a court invalidates any provision of this Living Will, such invalidation shall only be limited to the specific provision invalidated and shall not affect the rest of this Living Will. Any remaining provisions that can be given effect without the invalidated provision shall remain in effect.

Section 6: Governing Law

The substantive terms of this Living Will, and the construction thereof, shall be governed by the law of the State of Connecticut.

JIAN ZENG

Section 1: Declaration

I, Jian Zeng, am a resident of the State of Connecticut. I am of sound mind and declare this as my living will.

As used in this document, the term "living will" shall mean advance health care directive, health care power of attorney, designation of health care proxy or whatever term is used in the statutes of the state where I am present to reference a document where I declare the wishes for my medical care and who shall make health care decisions on my behalf if I become unable to make them on my own.

I revoke all living wills I have previously made.

I further declare that this Living Will is not being made as condition of treatment or admission to a health care facility.

Section 2: Health Care Agent

If at any time I become unable to make my own health care decisions, I name Xiang Fan to serve as my health care agent.

As used in this document, the term "agent" shall mean proxy, surrogate, representative, or whatever term is used in the statutes of the state where I am present to reference the person who shall make health care decisions on my behalf if I become unable to make them on my own.

Agent's Powers

My agent's authority becomes effective when my attending physician and at least one other health care professional determines that I am unable to make my own health care decisions.

I give my agent permission to make all health care decisions for me and to provide, withhold, or withdraw consent to any treatment for any physical or mental condition on my behalf; to apply for public benefits on my behalf to defray the cost of health care; to access my medical records; and to authorize my admission to or transfer from a health care facility in accordance with the instructions in this document, and any other wishes to the extent they are known to my agent.

The above grant of power is intended to be as broad as possible so that my agent will have the authority to make any decision I could make to obtain or terminate any type of health care, including withdrawal of nutrition and hydration and other life-sustaining measures as directed by this Living Will.

If necessary, I nominate my agent to serve as the guardian of my person if one needs to be appointed for me by a court.

Section 3: Instructions for Health Care

If I am diagnosed with a terminal condition, I direct that my health care agent decide the best course of action.

A "terminal condition" means the final stage of an incurable or irreversible medical condition which, without the administration of a life support system, will result in death within a relatively short time period, in the opinion of the attending physician or advanced practice registered nurse.

Section 4: Relief From Pain

Pursuant to state law, I acknowledge that treatment for the alleviation of pain or discomfort shall always be provided.

Section 5: Severability

If a court invalidates any provision of this Living Will, such invalidation shall only be limited to the specific provision invalidated and shall not affect the rest of this Living Will. Any remaining provisions that can be given effect without the invalidated provision shall remain in effect.

Section 6: Governing Law

The substantive terms of this Living Will, and the construction thereof, shall be governed by the law of the State of Connecticut.

DECLARATION OF TRUST
THE XIANG FAN AND JIAN ZENG REVOCABLE LIVING TRUST

THIS DECLARATION OF TRUST (this “Trust Agreement”) is made on the date set forth below between Xiang Fan and Jian Zeng, sometimes referred to hereafter as “Grantors” and “Trustees”. The initial Trustees, together with all successors and future co-trustees, if any, are collectively referred to herein as the “Trustees”.

The Grantors hereby transfer to the Trustees property for the following purposes:

Section 1: Trust Name

The name of the trust is the Xiang Fan and Jian Zeng Revocable Living Trust.

Section 2: Trust Grantors

The grantors of the Trust are Xiang Fan and Jian Zeng, each a resident of the State of Connecticut.

Section 3: Marital Status of Grantors

The Grantors are married to each other.

Section 4: Trust Property

To effect the creation of the Trust, approximately contemporaneously herewith the Grantors will transfer by deed to the Trustee the Grantors' interest in certain real estate.

From time to time, either Grantor may transfer additional property to the Trust. Additional property may also be added to the Trust by operation of a Grantor's last will and testament, a life insurance policy, or other document or instrument. Any property transferred to the Trust (the “Trust Property”) shall be held in trust, managed, and distributed by the Trustee according to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement.

All Trust Property shall retain the character it had immediately prior to its transfer to the Trust, whether as community, marital, separate, or other property. For the purposes of this Agreement, any reference to a Grantor's share of the Trust Property refers to any part of the Trust Property that such Grantor added to the Trust Property, including any income or interest attributable thereto; provided, however, that a Grantor's share of the Trust Property shall also include any Trust Property not required to be distributed upon the death of the other Grantor.

The Grantors, individually and collectively, have the right to possess, use, and dispose of, however they desire, all tangible personal property included in the Trust Property, without any rent, accounting, or other obligation.

The Grantors, individually and collectively, reserve the right to possess and occupy for each Grantor's life any residential real property held in the Trust, rent free (subject to taxes and the costs of insurance, maintenance and related costs and expenses). It is the Grantors' intent to preserve each Grantor's eligibility for any applicable state homestead tax or other exemption.

Section 5: Distribution of Trust Property During Lives of the Grantors

The Grantors shall be the initial beneficiaries of the Trust. While both Grantors are alive, the Grantors shall have the exclusive right to receive, and the Trustee shall pay to the Grantors, in convenient installments or as the Grantors may direct from time to time, as much of the net income and principal of the Trust Property as the Grantors may request in writing or as the Trustee may deem necessary or advisable for the Grantors' comfortable support, medical care, and welfare. If only one Grantor is alive, subject to any distributions required to be made under Section 6, the provisions of the previous sentence shall apply in the singular to the living Grantor. No beneficiary other than a Grantor has a right under this Agreement to contest or object to any distribution made by the Trustee to or for the benefit of a Grantor, unless such distribution was expressly prohibited by this Agreement.

Section 6: Distribution of Trust Property upon the Grantors' Deaths

Upon the death of the first Grantor to die, the deceased Grantor's share of the Trust Property shall remain in the Trust and become part of the surviving Grantor's share of the Trust Property and shall be held, managed, and distributed according to the terms of this Agreement.

Upon the death of the second Grantor to die, or upon the simultaneous deaths of the Grantors, the Trustee shall distribute the Trust Property to the following beneficiary:

Jian Zeng's descendants

As used in this Agreement, the term "beneficiary" means the Grantors or any person or organization to whom the Trustee is required under this Agreement to distribute any Trust Property upon the death of a Grantor, as the context requires.

To receive any Trust Property under this Agreement, a beneficiary must survive the Grantor whose death prompted the distribution of such Trust Property. As used in this Agreement, to "survive" a Grantor means to be alive or in existence as an organization 120 hours after the death of the Grantor.

If the Trustee has used best efforts to carry out the applicable distribution plan(s) set forth in Section 6 but Trust Property remains in the Trust:

- a. If only one Grantor is alive, such Trust Property shall remain in the Trust and become part of the living Grantor's share of the Trust Property and shall be held, managed, and distributed according to the terms of this Agreement, or
- b. If neither Grantor is alive, such Trust Property shall be distributed according to the intestacy laws of the applicable jurisdiction.

If a beneficiary is a minor, any Trust Property left to the beneficiary shall be held by the beneficiary's guardian as custodian under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act or similar law of the applicable jurisdiction until the beneficiary reaches the age of 21.

Section 7: Revocation and Amendments

While both Grantors are living, they may, acting together, amend, modify, or revoke this Trust at any time, in whole or in part. In addition, either Grantor, during their lifetime, may revoke the Trust solely with respect to their share at any time without the consent of the other Grantor. Except as provided below, any revocation, amendment, or modification shall be in writing, signed, and acknowledged by the appropriate Grantor or Grantors, as the case may be, and shall take effect upon its delivery to the Trustees. After the death of the first Grantor, the surviving Grantor, acting alone, may amend, modify, or revoke the entire Trust, in whole or in part. However, the surviving Grantor may not amend provisions concerning distributions required to be made upon the death of the deceased Grantor. The right to revoke, amend, or modify the Trust is personal to the Grantors and may not be exercised by a fiduciary or legal representative. After the death of the surviving Grantor all trusts created hereunder shall be irrevocable and unamendable. Furthermore, during the incapacity of either Grantor, their share of the Trust shall be irrevocable and unamendable.

The Grantors have full power and authority to sell, transfer, give, or otherwise deal with trust property in their own names, without disclosing their identities as Trustees of this Trust. Any such sale, transfer, gift, or other transaction shall be valid, and shall be deemed to be a removal of such property from the Trust, or, if necessary, may constitute a partial revocation of the Trust with respect to the property in question.

Section 8: Trustee

As used in this Agreement, the term “Trustee” means, at any given time, any person(s) serving as trustee at such time pursuant to this Section 8.

Xiang Fan and Jian Zeng shall serve as the initial trustees of the Trust.

If an initial trustee becomes unwilling or unable to serve as trustee, their replacement trustee shall serve in their place; provided, however, that, if such initial trustee has died, their replacement trustee(s) (other than the other initial trustee) shall, collectively, only serve as trustee for as long as it takes to, and shall orderly distribute any Trust Property required to be distributed under this Agreement by reason of such death.

Xiang Fan designates Jian Zeng as Xiang Fan's replacement trustee.

Jian Zeng designates Xiang Fan as Jian Zeng's replacement trustee.

As used herein, the term “replacement trustee” means, with respect to each initial trustee, such initial trustee's designated replacement trustee or any other trustee who has directly or indirectly replaced such initial trustee.

If there are two trustees serving jointly, they shall act through unanimous agreement. If there are more than two trustees serving jointly, they shall act by majority decision. Nevertheless, the Trustees may delegate to one or more Trustees the authority to execute any instrument or agreement or engage in any transaction on behalf of the trust.

Section 9: Trustee's Rights, Powers, and Obligations

The Trustee has all powers over the trust property which an unmarried competent owner has over individually owned property, any powers appropriate to achieve the proper investment, management, and distribution of the trust property, and all powers conferred by law in the State of Connecticut, including, but not limited to:

- a. To retain real estate and personal property without liability for loss or depreciation.
- b. To dispose of real estate and personal property by public or private sale, or exchange, or otherwise (whether or not necessary for payment of debts, expenses, or taxes), and receive and administer the proceeds as a part of the Trust Property.
- c. To vote stock; to exercise any option or privilege to convert bonds, notes, stocks or other securities belonging to the Trust Property into other bonds, notes, stocks or other securities; and to exercise all other rights and privileges of a person owning similar property.
- d. To lease any real estate or personal property in the Trust Property.
- e. To abandon, adjust, arbitrate, compromise, sue on or defend and otherwise deal with and settle claims in favor of or against the Trust.
- f. To continue or participate in any business that is a part of the Trust Property, and to incorporate, dissolve, or otherwise change the form of organization of the business.
- g. To serve as custodian of any real estate or personal property left to any minor under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act or similar law of the applicable jurisdiction until the minor reaches the age of 21.

No Trustee shall be required to furnish any bond or other security for the faithful discharge of their duties as Trustee, nor shall any Trustee be required to file any account of their proceedings in any court in any jurisdiction in which they may be called upon to act.

Section 10: Trustee's Liability

No Trustee shall have any personal liability for any act or omission by the Trustee in the course of exercising such Trustee's discretionary powers under this Agreement, provided such act or omission was made in good faith and does not constitute actual fraud or gross negligence.

Section 11: Compensation

The Trustee shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for carrying out the duties set forth in this Agreement.

Section 12: Severability

If any provision of this Agreement is legally held to be unenforceable, any remaining provisions that can be given effect without the invalidated provision shall remain in place and in effect.

Section 13: Governing Law

The substantive terms of this trust, and the construction thereof, shall be governed by the law of the State of Connecticut.

Photocopies of this signed trust should be treated as original counterparts.
